1839

dear Fi

Mr Josiah Loring will not give a proxy to any body, I understand to his pew, or rather the Fairbank pew. — He will sell it for 75 $/- probably less.

I think you had better see him and buy it. — truly Yr

Saml. May

Thursday eve
27 Septr 1839

I have got the Freeman pew.

[To Francis Jackson.] (Apropos of the contest against Rev. John Pierpont in Hollis Street Church, Boston.)

Dear Mary

Francis Jackson Esq.